

Crisis Contingency Management Plan – Extensive Beef Cattle

Property Details

| Risk Identification Questions  | Further Activities NeededList Activity Details (What, Who, When, How) |
|--|---|
| 1. Do you have a list of contacts to be used in times of crisis, including: EMERGENCY; fire/police/ambulance, SUPPORT; personal contacts, neighbours, professional, personal & financial counselling, local government, industry organisations?   |   |
| 2. Do you understand your legal responsibility in relation to Duty of Care for animals, and possible legal consequences if you do not comply?  |   |
| 3. Do you have a list of past and possible future crises , and understand the risk of these crises occurring in your region and industry in the future?  |   |
| 4. Do you have a Risk Mitigation or Crisis Management Plan in place?  |   |
| 5. Do you have a Business Plan in place, including farm map/plan?   |   |
| 6. Is there agreed emergency finance available to manage future crises?   |   |
| 7. Is there an animal health, disease management, parasite control, biosecurity and emergency disease management plan and vendor declaration program in place? Are veterinary advisors involved in the development and implementation of these plans and staff training programs? |   |
| 8. Are stock identified and animal health records (disease, reproduction, treatments etc.) kept   |   |
| 9. Are stock vulnerable to adverse environmental conditions and predation?  |   |

| Risk Identification Questions   | Further Activities NeededList Activity Details (What, Who, When, How) |
|---|---|
| 10. Are staff trained or experienced in animal husbandry and management, including care in times of crisis and acceptable stock humane killing procedures        |   |
| 11. Do you have a destocking strategy in place with triggers for agistment, feeding and/or reduce stock numbers and eventual destocking                          |   |
| 12. Do all staff understand the legal standards in A. managing cattle, especially in drought, and B. the health of cattle to be transported off farm in drought? |   |
| 13. Are stock monitored routinely and effectively, especially near calving ?  |   |
| 14. Is there an agreed business intergenerational transition plan in place that will ensure uninterrupted farm viability and positive animal welfare outcomes?   |   |
| 15. Do you access long range weather forecasts ?   |   |
| 16. Do you conduct land management, annual feed budgeting & Body Condition Scoring  |   |
| 17. Are stock watering facilities reliable and well maintained and have the capacity to cope with dry times?   |   |
| 18. Is the property secure from unwanted people entry and cattle escape ?   |   |
| 19. Are contingency plans in place for loss of management or operating personnel?  |   |
| 20. Are you aware of the signs that will indicate that a crisis is developing?   |   |